

BEGINNING DAY 2020

4. You only see what you admire

No one has ever experienced a Beginning Day as full of unknowns as the one we are experiencing now, day after day.

Yet, while we are urged daily to question our habits, plans and schedules, we happen to meet friends who, navigating as everyone else through “an ocean of uncertainty”, tell us: “Look! Someone is there!”

Our dialogue with these friends, as we heard at the GS Beginning Day on October 10th, is proposed as a reference text for the work on School of Community over the coming weeks (until November 20th). It is an aid to face the challenges of living in these times, ready to discover what gives zest to our daily lives.

Please note it is possible to send questions and contributions to the site <http://eventi.comunioneliberazione.org/gscontributi/>